Community Development Commission

The Eagle Point Community Development Commission is a nine-member body appointed by the Mayor and ratified by the City Council to advise on local community development matters. Members serve staggered three-year terms.

Meetings are held at 5:00 p.m. as needed, on the first Tuesday of the month unless the date conflicts with a holiday in which case the meeting will occur on the second Tuesday of the month. Additional information is available on the City's website at www.cityofeaglepoint.org under the City Government tab.

Membership structure consists of:

- Six members residing from within the Eagle Point city limits and/or urban growth boundary (voting membership).
- Two members may reside outside the city limits, but have a vested interest in Eagle Point. Vested interest includes: a real property owner, business owner, employee of a business, or member/volunteer of an organization located within the city limit. The city council will determine a candidate's qualifications (voting membership).
- One Jackson County School District No.9 representative (voting membership).
- One Eagle Point High School student representative (nonvoting membership).
- Up to two City Council liaison members (nonvoting membership).

COUNCIL RULES - CITY COMMISSIONS, LAY COMMITTEES AND COUNCIL COMMITTEES

56.2 Qualifications. All appointees to City Commissions and Lay Committees shall be registered electors, and have resided in the City of Eagle Point for a period of one year. The City Council may approve exceptions to the residency requirements, except when not allowed by State of Oregon law. No appointee may serve on more than two City Commissions or Lay Committees at any one time.
